A Story of Transformation – Guadalupe’s Journey

At The Lighthouse Rescue Mission, every life matters, and every story of transformation reminds us why we do what we do. Today, we are honored to share the inspiring journey of Guadalupe, a courageous woman who turned her pain into purpose through the hope and healing she found at The Lighthouse.

When Guadalupe first walked through our doors, she was broken and without direction. Struggling with meth addiction and homeless with her children, Guadalupe had lost all sense of hope. She had no safe place to turn and no clear path forward. But that changed when she found The Lighthouse.

Guadalupe began her journey in our Emergency Shelter, where she and her children found safety, rest, and the support they desperately needed. From there, she moved into our Women’s House and made the life-changing decision to join our year-long Discipleship Academy – a program designed to bring lasting transformation through faith, accountability, and life skills.

Throughout her time in the Academy, Guadalupe worked tirelessly to rebuild her life. She embraced healing, grew in her relationship with God, and developed the tools to live free from addiction. She graduated with over a year of sobriety and a heart full of purpose.

Today, Guadalupe is a shining example of what’s possible. She is clean and sober, employed by The Lighthouse Rescue Mission, and living in her very own apartment with her children. Her journey is a testimony to the power of God’s grace and the life-changing support of a loving community.

Guadalupe is no longer just surviving – she is thriving. She now shares her story with other women who are where she once was, offering them the same hope that was given to her. Her life is a living message that change is possible and that no one is ever too far gone to find restoration.

We are so proud of Guadalupe and grateful for the donors, volunteers, and supporters who make stories like hers possible. Thank you for being a part of the mission.

Together, we are breaking the cycle of homelessness and addiction – one life at a time!
